Pre-Show Check In

Dancer should be checked in by one parent or guardian at their designated time.

Dancers need to arrive with their hair done and in first outfit under their coverup.

Dancer Check-in is located on the right side of the building, facing 4th street (see diagram on back)

Dancers will then go to the ballroom with their dance bag and any additional attire required for this performance

No parents are allowed in the dressing room

Parents, family, and friends will enter the front entrance of the Scottish Rite 1 hour before the performance.

Must Have:

Dress code attire (must be labeled with dancer's name)

Dance shoes (must be labeled with dancer's name)

Hair supplies (hair ties, bobby pins, hair net, hair spray)

Makeup optional (lipstick, blush, and mascara)

Not allowed:

No underwear under leotards

No holes in tights

No nail polish or jewelry

Hair Tips:

Hair should be slicked back with hairspray and gathered into a centered ponytail

Buns should be flat - bobby pin securely and cover in a hair net in a similar color to dancer's hair color

Hairspray all wispiers/flyaways

*No costume or dance shoes should be worn outside

*All dancers need to come and go from the theatre in a cover up

The theater is not handicap accessible, but there will be ushers to escort any person needing assistance at the Dancer Check-in. Please contact Trilogy Dance Center to coordinate your guest arrival before the performance. Every person over 3 years of age needs to have a ticket.
